

METRO YOUTH BASKETBALL ASSOCIATION
2017-2018
PARENT/PLAYER RESPONSIBILITY AGREEMENT
BEHAVIORAL CODE OF CONDUCT

The following is a brief summary of the responsibilities that the Metro, its director and all participating programs would like each player and parent to review.

PLAYER ATTITUDE / BEHAVIOR

- Players should maintain a positive attitude at all times.
- Players are to be respectful toward coaches, teammates, opposing teams, referees, and fans.
- Profanity, rude behavior, or inappropriate talk will not be tolerated.
- Players are not to argue or talk negatively with referees.

Players kicked out of a game will receive a two game suspension for a first offense and a five game suspension for a second offense. Third offenses bring a ban for the season.

PARENT/COACH (ADULT) EXPECTATIONS:

The Dayton Metro and its youth programs require the parents and spectators to refrain from inappropriate conduct from the stands. It makes it very difficult on everyone involved. We do encourage parents to cheer positively for their team. Parents are asked to refrain from making negative comments concerning your players and coaches, opposing players, opposing coaches, opposing program personnel, and referees. If a problem arises, the program director and/or the head coach of that program will address the issue with the individual at that moment. Behavioral sanctions are as follows for inappropriate conduct:

Inappropriate Referee Conduct

Any parent, coach or spectator thrown out of a gym by a referee will get a two game suspension for a first offense. A second offense for that individual will bring about a five game suspension. A third offense and the individual is banned for a year.

Serious Offenses

Any parent, coach or spectator who gets into an altercation with another parent, coach or spectator at a Dayton Metro game will receive a minimum of a five game suspension for a first altercation. These offenses include parent-parent, parent-coach, parent-referee, coach-coach, spectator-spectator. It does not matter who started the altercation. Both parties will be suspended. WALK AWAY if you sense an altercation brewing!!! A second offense and you will be banned from all Dayton Metro games forever. ALL FINAL DECISIONS ARE AT THE DISCRETION OF THE METRO LEAGUE DIRECTOR.

I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE PARENT/PLAYER RESPONSIBILITY FORM.
